INSTRUCTIONS TO PARTICIPATING SCHOOLS

Schools should bring along their own

- (i) stage make-up and accessories
- (ii) refreshments/lunch
- (iii) team of additional technical/backstage support – maximum 4 persons
- (iv) sound track (if any) – recorded on 1 CD only please
- (v) hand props and costumes – don't bring furniture please

Tickets for school supporters

Please note that each participating school will receive 50 tickets to watch the drama presentations of their session. These will be sent to schools on 18 April 2007.

Safe custody of valuables

Schools are responsible for their own property and valuables. The host school will provide 2 lockers for each school to store wallets, mobile phones etc. But schools should bring their own padlocks.

Adjudication

There will be 2-3 judges for each session. They are from the NET Section of EMB, SCMP and HKAPA.

As this is not a competition, the judging will be based on the overall impression of the judges. Judges will give comments to schools so that students feel encouraged and learn from the experience.

Prizes & Performance Day

Outstanding performers and performances will be announced immediately after each session. Trophies and certificates, however, will be presented to schools and students on Performance Day. The date and venue of Performance Day will be announced later.

There will be a trophy for each of the following categories for each session of 6 schools:

- Outstanding Performance
- Outstanding Actor
- Outstanding Actress
- Outstanding Script
- Outstanding Props & Costumes
- Outstanding Teamwork
